From Our Pastor

"For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?" He said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future.'"

This quote from Luke's Gospel reveals a key characteristic of God – He is patient. This is especially important to remember as we come to the mid-point of the Lenten season. We may have entered Lent determined to do many things: to pray more, perhaps abstain from certain foods or social media, or to return to God in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Maybe we started strong, but just about three weeks in, perhaps we've faltered just a bit.

That doesn't mean all is lost; it doesn't mean that we can't start the journey anew. "Have patience with all things, but chiefly have patience with yourself. Do not lose courage in considering your imperfections, but instantly set about remedying them - every day begin the task anew." Saint Francis de Sales

God seeks nothing more from us than to repent from our sins and return to Him. There is no giant scorecard in His possession; there are no "punishments" He hands out to satisfy some eternal plan, just the Psalmist's words: "The Lord is kind and merciful."

God does not send sickness, injury or natural disasters to separate the wheat from the chaff. He does not send trials our way to "exhaust the soil." Yet, it may seem that way sometimes; see Job! Though we may turn away from Him during these times, He still waits for us. He offers ways to replenish our garden. Through friendships, art or music, but most especially through the Sacraments, we can find the grace needed to right our path. Lent, then, should not be looked upon as a time of deprivation; but a time of replenishment, of caring for the garden of our souls.

It is wonderful that during Lent we can celebrate the cultivation of our young men and women who received nourishment in Confirmation. They have prayed, studied, and done acts of charity in preparation for this great Sacrament. Their parents, teachers, and catechists have guided them along the path to the point where it is now their time to stake claim to their garden.

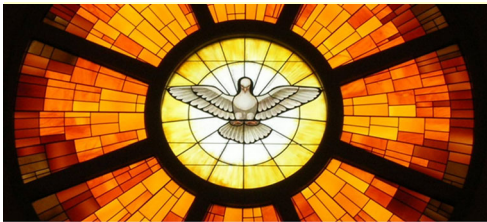

But it doesn't and shouldn't end when they return the red robes. Nor should they go it alone. We as a parish should assist them and their families, just as we assist each other, in bearing good fruit. The examples of our lives and our service should be fodder for active and productive faith. So I ask you not just today, but always, to pray especially for the youth of our parish: that by our witness they may see "the good that we do and give glory to God." Congratulations and God bless our Confirmandi.

~Fr. Posey

Medieval Lent Was Very Different From Today's Lent

Did you ever wonder how our ancestors abstained during Lent? St. Thomas Aquinas' writings remind us that in medieval times people did not consume food or water on either Ash Wednesday or Good Friday; they weren't allowed to eat any food until 3:00pm on all other days of Lent, although they were allowed to drink water. People also couldn't eat any animal fats or meats, nor any eggs or dairy products for the duration of Lent, and there was no "cheating" on Sunday - people still abstained. Hard rules by today's standards.

Congratulations to our Confirmandi

Congratulations to our Confirmandi!

On Saturday, March 23, 107 candidates received the Sacrament of Confirmation from the Most Reverend Timothy P. Broglio, Archbishop for the Military Services, USA. Candidates prepared for this day for over two years, through a mix of education, prayer, reflection, and service. We are grateful to the parents and sponsors for their guidance and support of each candidate. We are also thankful for our Director of Religious Education, Sr. Regina Rosarii McLallen, IHM; and her assistants Pam Heid and Frances Wilson, and to Sister Regina's team of catechists: Sister Melissa Mastrangelo, IHM, who also teaches at St. James School; Marissa Johannes, Waret Chastain, Julia Mendez, and Mark Flores, and to their assistants: Cara Cline-Thomas, Katie Sullivan, Vy Vy Le, and Sharonel Pedronan. We also thank our school's Principal Sister Mary Sue Carwile, IHM; and teacher Mr. Joseph Bracken.

St. James Social Outreach Focus on Hunger-Christ House

"Feeding the hungry is a greater work than raising the dead."
St. John Chrysostom

For over 40 years, St. James parish has provided monthly wholesome dinners at Christ House Diocesan Soup Kitchen and Shelter in Old Town, Alexandria. On the second Wednesday of each month, volunteers from St. James prepare and serve dinner at Christ House. Volunteering at Christ House is a unique hands-on experience to help those in need directly. Right now, we are seeking parish groups who can prepare and serve a meal at Christ House one month or more a year. If your group is interested or would like more information about the program, please contact Elizabeth Goodson by email at lzbthgoodson@gmail.com.

The Light is On For You

Don't forget, every Wednesday evening from 6:30pm to 8:00pm, the "Light Is On For You" at St. James. Priests will be on-hand to hear your confession, and you will have the opportunity to engage in Eucharistic adoration as well. These evenings will help you draw closer to God as you prepare yourself to greet our Lord on Easter morning.

¡La Luz está Encendida Para Ti!

No se olvide, todos los Miércoles por la noche de 6:30 pm a 8:00pm, la "Luz Está Encendida Para Ti" en St. James. Los sacerdotes estarán a su disposición para escuchar su confesión, y tendrán la oportunidad de participar también en la adoración eucarística. Estas tardes te ayudarán a acercarte a Dios mientras te preparas para saludar a nuestro Señor en la mañana de Pascua.
