Stewardship

"Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, 'Do you love me?' and he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep.'" (John 21:17)

We are challenged to show our love for Jesus and others. Discern how God is calling you to use your time in prayer, your service in charitable works and your support in assisting those who in need. Your spiritual and financial sacrifices help feed Christ's sheep here, in our greater community and throughout the world.

From Our Pastor

“Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?”

Peter is a fascinating person. One of the first to be called by Christ, he is the first to proclaim Him the Messiah. He is with Jesus at the Transfiguration. He is called by Christ to be the foundation which will forever be the touchstone of our Catholic faith. Yet as strong as he is, he is weak and rash. His faith waivers as he sinks into the sea before Jesus. He cuts off the servant's ear in the Garden of Gethsemane in a misguided attempt to shield Jesus from His inevitable fate. Most profoundly, he denies Christ three times and, like the rest of the disciples, doubts what Mary Magdalene saw that Easter morning.

Peter is us. We are strong yet weak; committed yet unsure; in love with our Lord, yet quick to turn away. But, just as Jesus knew Peter better than Peter knew himself, Jesus knows us just as well. Though tested and found wanting that Good Friday, Peter does not despair but seeks forgiveness. Judas, in contrast, does not believe he is worthy of forgiveness and, more strikingly, he believes that God will not provide it.

Instilled with the Holy Spirit, Peter is now ready to proclaim the Risen Lord. Instead of sinking in the sea, he jumps in to meet Jesus. He is ready to feed and tend his flock. His three assurances that he loves Jesus are a kind of atonement for his three denials.

Now however, Jesus asks Peter not just to follow but to lead. This leadership will take him “places he does not want to go.” For Peter, these places led to his own crucifixion. But what about us, more than 2000 years later? Where is Christ leading you? Is He calling you to stand up for the poor? For the lonely student in your class? Is He calling you to raise your voice against injustice and discrimination? Is He calling you to forgive, to mend what may be broken in your lives and in your hearts? Be assured, He is indeed calling you. Will you jump in the sea to greet him just as you joyfully greeted him Easter Day?

This weekend and next our second grade School and PREP students are jumping in and greeting Jesus at the Eucharistic table. May God bless them this day. May they be open to the grace offered to them each and every time they receive the Lord. May they be ready to say, “yes Lord you know I love you” even when the tide gets rough. Thank you to their teachers and catechists and most especially their parents for supporting guiding them in our faith.

I would also like to thank the volunteers who made our Easter liturgies beautiful and welcoming: Teresa Matos and the Hispanic Community for their amazing Living Stations, Dan Day and his musicians, John Vrablik and all our ushers, our lectors, eucharistic ministers, and altar servers; and special thanks to Donnamaria Duatschek, Linda Doyle, Jonie Lisbeth, Sandra Arze, Vivian Gilleo, Jane Harvey, Susan Kelley, Larry and Laurea DiJoseph, Carol Breen and of course our fantastic Facilities crew of Vince Dufrane, Miguel Cruz, Sigfredo Ayala, Paul Pacheco, and Richard Toddy.

Take a look at our collage of photos on page nine; go to our Facebook page for even more! Taken by Daniel Sone Photography, they are powerful images of the holiest time of the year. ~Fr. Posey

Support HOPE in Northern Virginia

The St. James Social Outreach and Pro-Life Committees are once again reaching out to help HOPE in Northern Virginia (our neighbor on Park Avenue). HOPE is a Christian, pro-life pregnancy resource center dedicated to empowering women to choose life. While HOPE owns the house outright, there are many everyday expenses that go along with owning a house as well as helping pregnant mothers and their babies. There are always other items that need to be purchased regularly including diapers, wipes, baby bottles, etc.

This weekend, the Outreach Committee and Pro-Life Committee will be handing out baby bottles after all the Masses. We are asking parishioners to fill the bottles during the week with coins, bills, or a check (made out to St. James) and return the bottles on May 11 and 12 (Mother's Day). Both the Outreach Committee and the Pro-Life Committee will be outside of the church that weekend collecting the returned bottles. Your children may want to get involved, too, with helping to fill the bottles. Please encourage them to do so.

More details about HOPE are available at www.hopehousenova.org. Any questions? Please e-mail HOPE at hopeinnova@gmail.com.
