On The Way

Priestly Celibacy I

As some of you know, the Holy See is currently hosting the Synod of Bishops for the Pan-Amazon region. Such a meeting of bishops does not usually garner a lot of press. Nor should it. But this one has, because one topic of discussion is the possibility of ordaining married men to the priesthood. This would represent a significant departure from the current discipline of celibacy for Roman Catholic priests.

An argument recently advanced against celibacy in the Amazon region is that the indigenous peoples do not understand it. This is, quite simply, silly. You might as well advocate doing away with marriage because many people don't understand it! More to the point, nobody completely understands celibacy. There is something about it that is supposed to be shocking and mysterious beyond our grasp. A man foregoing the goods of marriage, should shock people. It is meant to prompt the question, Why? Why are priests celibate? That, in turn, provides an opportunity to speak about the surpassing worth of being configured to Christ in the priesthood and serving Christ's people.

No, the real problem is not the mystery but the myths surrounding priestly celibacy. Myth: In the ancient Church, priests were allowed to get married. No, priests were never allowed to get married. Married men were sometimes ordained priests. And if a single man was ordained, he could not marry afterward. Which is still the case in those rites in the Church that do have a married clergy. In fact, the documents of the ancient Church indicate that when a married man was ordained a deacon (whether or not he subsequently became a priest) he was obligated to perpetual continence. That is, ordained married men were expected to cease all marital relations with their wives. (Few advocate a return to that ancient Church discipline.)

Myth: Celibacy is a later, medieval development in the Church. In fact, celibacy is of apostolic origin, from the earliest years of the Church. Myth: Celibacy is a discipline and not a doctrine, so it can be changed. This is true, technically. But just because something is not a doctrine does not mean it is unimportant. Disciplines are in place precisely because of doctrines and to protect them. Disciplines and doctrines tend to be bound together a lot. To change the discipline of priestly celibacy would call into question a great deal about the doctrine of the priesthood. But that's for next week.

For now, we will leave the final word to the man who was canonized last week: Saint John Henry Newman. At a young age and while still an Anglican, Newman dedicated himself to a celibate life. Reflecting on his later conversion he wrote: [The Church's] zealous maintenance of the doctrine and the rule of celibacy, which I recognized as Apostolic, and her faithful agreement with Antiquity in so many other points which were dear to me, was an argument as well as a plea in favor of the great Church of Rome.

Next week: Reasons for Priestly Celibacy

Stewardship

World Mission Sunday

Today's Second Collection is for World Mission Sunday. This collection, instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926, reminds us that we play a vital role in helping our Priests, Deacons, and Sisters, who staff missions around the world, in spreading the word of God and leading souls to Christ's salvation. Here in the Diocese of Arlington, we support the Bánica Mission in the Dominican Republic, which serves "13,000 people living in the towns of Bánica, Pedro Santana, Sabana Cruz, and in the surrounding 60 rural communities." Your offering today will help us continue to serve the people of that area. To learn more about our diocese's work in Bánica, visit <http://j.mp/2p8RCoi>. Your offering also helps Catholic missions, scattered around the world, continue their vital mission as well. Thank you for your support!

St. James Pro-Life Ministry Update

Help Save Lives! In Virginia, over 15,000 children were killed in the womb (source: VA Dept of Health for 2017). We need your help. The fall 40 Days for Life campaign (40daysforlife.com/fallschurch) is underway until November 3, 2019, at the Falls Church abortion facility: 900 S. Washington Street, Falls Church, VA 22046. For 40 days and nights, people of faith and conscience will stand in constant, peaceful vigil outside hundreds of abortion facilities ... to do the single most important thing we can do: PRAY. Join other St. James parishioners on Wednesdays – or any day you are available – for this prayerful witness to life. So far, during this campaign over 50 babies have been saved.

First Saturday Rosary at 10:30am at the Falls Church abortion facility: 900 S. Washington Street, Falls Church, VA 22046. One of our St. James priests will lead the rosary each month.

There is a Holy Hour the second Tuesday of every month 7:30pm to 8:30pm to pray for the healing of our culture and for those who hold the secret sorrow of abortion deep within their hearts – that grace will break through.

<https://www.arlingtondiocese.org/healingandconversion/>

The St. James Pro-Life Ministry meets on the first Thursday of every month from 7:30pm to 9:00pm in the Knecht Conference Room (Doors 8 & 9). New members are always welcome. Join them and take a stand for life!

Annual Mass of Remembrance— November 2

On Saturday, November 2, St. James will celebrate our annual Mass of Remembrance at 10:00am. This Mass remembers all those who have gone before us and who we hope to see again. Email the Rectory Office at rectory@stjamescatholic.org if you would like to arrange a candle to be placed at the altar in memory of your deceased loved one.

Take Part in 40 Days for Life

This fall's 40 Days for Life campaign runs from September 25 - November 3 (7:00am—9:00pm daily). Please see our webpage, <https://www.40daysforlife.com/falls-church>, for more information, as well as to sign up for vigil hour. Join us, and take a stand for life! For more information on how to get involved, contact Rich Hunter at stjameslife@gmail.com or call him at 571-423-6482.

If you cannot make it out to the abortion facility, NOVA for Life is encouraging everyone to participate in a resolution to spend an hour in adoration and pray the rosary in silence before the Blessed Sacrament in intercessory prayer for an end to abortion, for the protection of the lives of the unborn and for the conversion of all those involved especially within our Diocese.

Know Your Patron Saints—St. Dominic of Silos, Patron Saint of Shepherds

Born in Cañas, Spain, St. Dominic of Silos entered life as the son of peasants and worked as a shepherd to help support his family. Discerning a call to vocations, Dominic became a Benedictine Monk and Priest at the Monasteries of San Millán de la Cogolla. He held several leadership positions in the order but was eventually driven out of the monastery, along with a few other monks, after a land dispute with King García Sánchez III of Navarre. Dominic and his fellow monks took refuge in the town of Silos at the Abbey of St. Sebastian. Finding the abbey in disrepair, and staffed by only six monks, Dominic and his friends rebuilt the abbey, turning it into a center of book design, scholarship, and charity. Dominic died on December 20, 1073. Blessed Joan of Aza prayed at the shrine of St. Dominic, about a hundred years after his death, asking for his intercession in the hope that she would deliver a healthy baby during a difficult pregnancy. God granted her prayer, and she gave birth to another Dominic, who became St. Dominic of Guzmán, founder of the Dominican Order.
